

SINGER-SONGWRITER

FRIZZELL D'SOUZA.

"I do music for the love of it,
and that's about it"

ABOUT FRIZZELL.

Frizzell D'souza is a singer-songwriter based out of Bangalore, who first showcased her talent by uploading song covers on her YouTube channel back in 2018.

Two years since then and with consistent effort put along the way, she has built a family of 12000+ subscribers on YouTube and a large following on her social media as well.

The core of her music lies in translating emotions and is also influenced by her love for retro classics and indie music.

Currently pursuing her bachelor's in Architecture, on the sidelines, Frizzell is also an art enthusiast who is known for her signature denim artworks.

The October Series.

In October of 2019, Frizzell challenged herself to post a short cover every day for 30 days straight. What began as a mere no-brainer, soon went on to become what is now called 'The October Series'.

Halfway through the month, the series gained momentum and began receiving recognition from popular indie artists like Easy Wanderlings and Prateek Kuhad.

It was this, that catapulted Frizzell and her music career.
